

Andrea Tully

She was an aspiring artist, regularly selling her work, as well as receiving the second highest grade in Scotland in her Fine Arts course.

1992

Joined NatWest's national graduate programme as Branch Manager, then moved onto Assistant Product Manager.

1999-2001

She missed working for a large corporate so left teaching and joined Zurich International, working up the ranks to International Talent Manager. In this 'dream job' she regularly travelled to Hong Kong, Dubai and Zurich.

2003-2008

Moved to Nationwide Building Society as Leadership Development Manager, and is currently Talent Development Manager.

Today

Andrea's first taste of working life was at age 12, when she worked in her parents' bakery before school.

Andrea was not accepted to her preferred art school - Glasgow School of Art - so she chose to go to University instead, and completed an M.A. in Psychology and Management at Glasgow University.

1994-1998 Education

Worked for St Mirren Football Club as Assistant Commercial Manager after Uni.

1998 First job

Keen to re-train as a teacher (PGCE), as she enjoyed people development in her previous role. Went on to teach at a secondary school on the Isle of Man, where she met husband Karl.

2001 Career switch

Married Karl!

2005 Wedding

Transferred to Zurich UK to return to the South West to be near family.

2008-2009
