

Reflective

Reflective clothes help us to be more visible in the dark when light shines on it, such as car lights. Different colours reflect different amounts of lights and certain materials are more reflective in the dark.

Draw a street scene and include as many reflective things as you can.

