

Look twice. What do you see?

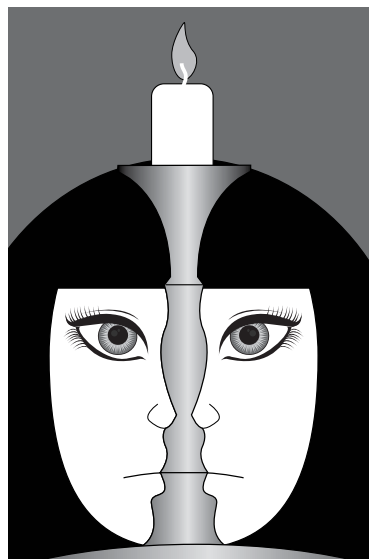

How many prongs can you count?

How does this elephant walk?

Which line is shorter?

Can you see one head or two?

Things are not always what they seem at first glance.